Word of Life

"Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, 'God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the god who has a human face and who has loved us to the end' (Spe salvt 31)."

Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the unborn, pray for us.
St. Joseph, patron of the unborn, pray for us.

In prayer, Bishop DeGrood received a vision of Lifelong Catholic Missionary Discipleship Through God's Love for the Catholic Diocese of Sioux Falls. Fr. Scott Traynor, Dr. Chris Burgwald, and Eric Gallagher will be traveling around the diocese to invite all of the lay faithful to hear and discuss what it means for Catholics in Eastern South Dakota. Please join us at St Anthony's Hoven on Tuesday April 6, 2021 at 7pm. The presentation will be livestreamed and recorded. Find out more at sf catholic.org/discipleship.

Please note there will be an earlier Mass Time for Saturday, April 10 @ 4:00 PM @ St Anthony's, Hoven. This Mass will also include First Holy Communion.

Lifelong Discipleship

As we reach the end of the season of Lent, I'm probably not alone in thinking it could have gone better. There are resolutions I could have kept more faithfully, sins I've still made little progress in overcoming, good that I've left undone, unfinished. But just because Lent is over does not mean we should stop trying to make progress in our spiritual lives. Certainly the Easter season has its own character of great rejoicing at the victory of Christ over sin and death, and some forms of penance would seem inappropriate, but the discipline of discipleship is something that Christians should live out every day of our lives.

The term used for this response to Christ's call to "take up your cross daily and follow" Him is Christian asceticism, from the Greek word for training, exercise, discipline (Luke 9:23). From the beginning of the Church, Christians were known for their consistent practices of self-denial. Unlike many of their pagan neighbors—who often lived merely for the enjoyment of the good things of this world and the avoidance of hardship—followers of Christ knew that we were made for something more than this passing world. Their daily practice of asceticism was a reminder of that fact.

From the Beatitudes of Christ to the exhortations of St. Paul, to "make use of the things of this world without becoming immersed in them; for the world in its present form is passing away," some forms of self-denial and discipline should be practiced year-round (1 Cor 7:31). Even for our physical health and sanity, regular exercise and a certain amount of discipline in our diets and schedules is necessary. Don't let the Easter season become an excuse for laziness and loss of virtue, overindulgence and sin.

This Tuesday at 7 p.m., Fr. Scott Traynor, Dr. Chris Burgwald, and Eric Gallagher will be coming up from Sioux Falls to explain and discuss Bishop DeGrood's vision for the diocese, summarized as "Lifelong Catholic Missionary Discipleship Through God's Love," and what it means for us in East River South Dakota. We'll be hosting them in the parish hall (basement) of St. Anthony Church in Hoven, but this discussion is meant to serve all the parishes in the wider area. Hopefully, a large number of people will be able to attend to make their long trip worthwhile, and many others will be able to stream the event.
