St. John the Baptist, Onaka, last celebration of Mass.

St. John the Baptist Parish in Onaka will have sacred use of the church coming to an end this summer. The parish will celebrate its last Mass on June 13, 2021 at 4:00 PM. This celebration will allow the parish community to come together formally one last time to celebrate the legacy of St. John the Baptist Parish. Bishop Donald DeGrood will preside along with Fr. Darin Schmidt concelebrating.

The Mass collection will go towards the St. John the Baptist Cemetery Fund. The fund will continue to provide for the upkeep and maintenance of the cemetery. Any prayerful consideration for donations is appreciated, whether you can attend or not.

The parish is hosting an open house at St. John the Baptist before Mass, from 1:00 PM to 3:40 PM. You are invited to walk through the church, take photos, visit the cemetery, share stories with family and friends, etc. Refreshments will be available.

A roast beef dinner will follow Mass at the Onaka City Park. It will be a free will donation event. Any funds donated above and beyond the cost of the meal will be donated to the St. John the Baptist Cemetery Fund.

Holy Baptism

Congratulations to our newest Christian, Grayson Jacob Heumiller, son of Jordan & Ashley, on receiving the Sacrament of Baptism on Sat May 15, 2021 at St. Anthony, Hoven. God bless all parents who are the first teachers of the Faith for their children.

Congratulations to two young people who made their First Communion last Sunday, May 16 @ St Anthony's, Hoven.

Word of Life

“The Lord says to us, ‘Do not fear: I am with you’ (Isaiah 41:10). He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth; we are loved by God. Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new. ”

Just a bit from Fr. Schmidt

For our God is a consuming Fire” (Hebrews 12:29)

I’ve always been fascinated by fire. As I was growing up, I could sit for a long time just watching the flames dance in our fireplace at home. And fire has always been my favorite image of the Holy Spirit, who appeared to Mary and the Apostles at Pentecost and filled them with zeal and courage to proclaim the Gospel of Christ throughout the world. Fire is not very balanced or moderate. It is not politically correct. Fire is not interested in negotiation. Instead, it seeks to completely consume everything it touches. The Holy Spirit wants to consume us, completely, making us a pure offering to God—not on our own terms, but according to the will of God. He wants to purify all our thoughts, words, actions, and desires.

I’d like to say that I’ve made this my life’s mission, to spread the Fire of the Holy Spirit and the Truth of Jesus Christ to everyone I meet, but at the same time, I know how far I fall short, how much of myself that I continue to hold back from the Fire of God. But God doesn’t ask us to serve Him with half or even most of our heart and mind. “Hear, O Israel! The Lord, our God, is Lord alone! Therefore, you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength” (Mark 12:29-30; Deuteronomy 6:4-5).

I’m not interested in adding to the already staggering number of mediocre Catholics. The world doesn’t need any more. Instead, I want to “fan into flame the gift of God” that we received at our Baptism and on the day of our Confirmation, that we might burn with love and knowledge of Him and give ourselves entirely (2 Timothy 1:6). If we think we’re just going to gently coast into heaven at the end of our lives, I think we’ll all be in for a rather rude awakening. “The Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the Source of God’s creation, has this to say: ‘I know your works; I know that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either cold or hot. So, because you are lukewarm, neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of my mouth’” (Revelation 3:14-16).

Following Christ is serious business. Let’s keep at it, by the Fire of His Holy Spirit.
