

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
June 13 ~ 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time
*For all children in need of adoption and those families hoping to adopt:
May the Lord bless them and provide for their every need;*
We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

Thank You to all who helped with the church grounds at St Augustine. Your efforts can definitely be noticed by how much better the gardens look.

Prayer for Rain
O God, in Whom we live and move and have our being, grant us rain, in due abundance, that, being sufficiently helped with temporal goods, we may the more confidently seek after the gifts that are eternal. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. St. Isidore the Farmer, pray for us.

Word of Life

"It is so hard to express in words what a unique experience adoption has been for us. It has been quite a journey facing infertility, as well as so many unknowns and acts of kindness and sacrifice— all with so many emotions— which led to the growth of our family. There were times when our faith was shaken and we weren't sure if we could handle our cross. But adopting Andrew has made us more aware of God's power and of his love for us. We realize that he always has a perfect plan for our lives."

Find Your Rest in God

"Come away by yourselves to a secluded place and rest a while" (Mark 6:31) This week I'll be away on retreat at the Sioux Spiritual Center across the river in the Diocese of Rapid City. All priests are required to make an annual retreat for our spiritual health. This will be my first time out to this retreat center. In our own diocese, we have Broomtree and the Abbey of the Hills that regularly host retreats and other events. I'm looking forward to the opportunity to spend some extra time in prayer and reflection.

One good thing about not getting all the hours covered during our 40 Hours Devotion in the two parishes is that it forced me to spend those hours with Jesus. I'm very grateful to those who were able to sign up or stop by during exposition, and I hope it was a fruitful time for you. Someone once compared Eucharistic adoration to going sunbathing. It gives Jesus, the Sun of Justice "with healing in His rays," the opportunity to work on us, to give us a sort of spiritual tan even when we don't always recognize or experience the benefits as its happening, little by little (Mal. 4:2).

I mentioned in a homily a rule of thumb once told to me, that we should spend one hour each day, one day every month, and one week every year in more deliberate prayer and recollection. We get pulled in so many directions today that we need these times to re-collect ourselves, gather ourselves back together when we tend to spread ourselves too thin the rest of the time. And so many forms of entertainment today fall short of actual rest and leisure. They tend only to distract us for a time without doing anything to resolve the stresses of life or bring real or lasting refreshment.

One of the most central commandments in all the Law and in the life of Israel concerned Sabbath rest and worship of God. For Christians, we observe the Lord's Day, Sunday, when Jesus rose from the dead. God commands us to gather for Sunday Mass and to rest and recollect ourselves because it is real and critical need for human beings. Even Jesus Himself knew this well, often "rising very early in the morning, while it was still dark," to go to deserted places to pray (Mark 1:35). "For You have made us for Yourself, O Lord, and our heart is restless until it rests in You" (St. Augustine, Confessions I.i).
