

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
June 20th ~ 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time
May expectant fathers lovingly support the mothers of their children in welcoming new life;
We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

To the parishes of St. Augustine/St. Thomas: Your generous support of the CDA Lenten tree project was greatly appreciated not only by your local CDA court, but by the St. Francis House of Sioux Falls. They want to let you know they feel blessed and to thank you for your support and dedication in helping them "move people from Homelessness to Hope."
Regent Janet Fuhrmann

Heidi Morlock of Eureka and representing Forte International Exchange Association is searching for a host family for the following exchange student from Spain. The students name is Marina, she is 16 and will be a junior. Marina loves all kinds of pets & loves children. She goes to a summer camp organized by her church where she helps to take care of children in her community. Marina is Catholic and goes to mass every Saturday night and to catechism on Tuesdays. She wishes to be placed with a Catholic family so she can continue these practices. Some of her hobbies are listening to music, running and watching movies. Marina is looking forward to having an amazing experience during her exchange program. If you are interested in being a welcome family or host family for Marina, please contact Heidi at 605-228-6180 or email her at heidim@forteexchange.org.

Re-birthday and Father's Day

I am grateful to all those who remembered me, prayed for me, sent cards or others gifts for my birthday. Really, it's my mom who should get most of the credit for what happened that day. For a long time now, I've tried to make more of a point to observe and celebrate the anniversary of my Baptism, my Re-birthday as a child of God. All the more so after 2015, when my Ordination to the Priesthood happened to fall on the same day. Saturday of this next week, June 26, will mark the completion of 6 years of priesthood for me and 33 years as a member of God's Catholic Church.

June 26 is also the Feast Day of Sts. John and Paul, early martyrs mentioned in the Roman Canon, between "Lawrence, Chrysogonus," and "Cosmas and Damian." John and Paul were faithful and trustworthy servants of Emperor Constantine's daughter, Constantia. As Christians, they were often engaged in the works of mercy, and when Constantia died and left them sizable properties, they distributed these also to the poor. When Julian became emperor, knowing their reputation as valuable servants, he even offered them a promotion. Instead of serving in the household of an emperor's daughter, they would serve the new emperor directly.

Only one catch. This emperor known as Julian the Apostate (an apostate is one who renounces the true Faith) would require John and Paul to offer sacrifice to Jupiter (Zeus) and renounce their Christian faith. Both refused and were beheaded on June 26. The cowardly emperor had the executions carried out inside someone's home, so as not to draw attention to the deaths of servants so well-beloved by the poor and by all who knew them. Through their intercession, God grant us always to place our love for God and for "the least brothers" of Christ above all concern for career, reputation, or material wealth.

This Sunday is of course Father's Day, so be sure to remember, call, and make an effort to show your appreciation for your dad and grandpas. As I get older, I appreciate more and more how similar I am to my dad and how much I've learned from him. It's also a bit strange now to see him in his role as a grandfather, now to 18 grandkids. As I was growing up, I never remember him keeping so many tootsie rolls in his pockets to hand out to us. I never really knew my own grandfathers—who had died either before I was born or shortly after—but my dad makes a great one. Father's Day can also be a difficult time for those who lost their dads or grandads in recent years. Please remember to pray for those who mourn and for the repose of the departed.
