Special Schedule for June 12 & 13

More and more things are getting back to normal. Around this time last year my parents celebrated 50 years of marriage together (June 13, 1970), but it wasn't the celebration we had hoped it would be. We had planned a big get-together of all my siblings and their families—the first in quite a few years—but that had to be postponed. Instead, we'll be together to celebrate their 51st Anniversary next weekend. 35 people total, if I counted correctly. Please keep my parents in your prayers, and the rest of my family that we celebrate safely and joyfully.

June 13 is a significant date for other reasons as well. It's the Feastday of St. Anthony of Padua, the patron of the parish in Hoven. It will also be the date of the Final Mass at St. John the Baptist Church in Onaka and the celebration of the many lives and families that have been touched by God's grace there through its many years of service.

Fr. David Axtmann will be filling in for me at the Masses that weekend. Remember that we've canceled the Sunday morning Mass in Hoven on June 13. The special Mass schedule is as follows:

5 pm in Hoven on Saturday, June 12

10 am in Bowdle on Sunday, June 13

4 pm in Onaka on Sunday, June 13 with the Bishop

I plan to be back for the Final Mass in Onaka and for the celebrations that follow. For more than 70 years since being built to replace the previous one that burned down, the church in Onaka has seen children born again unto eternal life through the waters of baptism, sins forgiven in Confession, marriage bonds formed and blessed, funerals prayed for the deceased, and bread and wine changed into the very Body and Blood of Christ.

Even as our houses and homes become such special places for all the memories made there and the growth that they witness, our churches are witness to so many miracles, spiritual growth, and countless memories of the greatest significance. Please pray for all whose lives have been touched and hearts uplifted within the walls of St. John the Baptist Church through the course of these many years.
