

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
Aug 22 ~ 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

For all Catholics:
That we may steadfastly proclaim and uphold the dignity of all human life, in all stages and circumstances;
 We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

Parish Assignments for August

- St Augustine: Makena Vocu & family, Doug & Mary Turner, Ernie & Pauline Mertz
- St Anthony:
 - August Cleaning: Circle 2
 - Next Funeral Luncheon: Circle 9
 - Special Activity: Circle 7

BNH is seeking volunteers from St Anthony's, Hoven and St Augustine, Bowdle to come lead the rosary with residents as an inspirational activity. If enough individuals take an interest in participating Katelyn, Activity Coordinator @ BNH is hoping to make this a twice monthly scheduled activity, maybe more often. If you are interested in helping out please give Katelyn 605-285-8400 your name and phone number along with which month or months work best for you. This may be done as an individual or as an organization, club event. Looking to begin in August. Thanks for considering this special activity.

Thank you to all the teens who joined us for our Youth Group/Luther League combined event fun night, what a great time! We had water fights, played volleyball and dodgeball and ate Subway and ice cream. I'll be contacting families about Youth Group gatherings which will start in Oct. Thank you for your support! ~ Stacy Preszler

Word of Life

“God’s love—individual, real, unchanging—is the true source of our worth, identity, and dignity. It really is not a question of who we are, but rather whose we are. Because his love will never change, nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can diminish the immeasurable worth of our lives.”

The Cross that Saved the World

My dad’s hometown is St. Helena, Nebraska, not too far from Yankton across the river. Today, it has a population of less than 100 people. Because of how the name of the town is pronounced, and since I didn’t have much occasion myself for spelling it out, it never really dawned on me till around 15 years ago that it’s named after a saint. St. Helena’s feast day is actually August 18, which was this past Wednesday. She was the mother of Emperor Constantine, the first Roman Emperor to legalize Christianity. After becoming Christian, she traveled to the Holy Land to visit the places where Jesus walked, preached, suffered, died, and rose triumphant from the grave. She oversaw the construction of many of the first churches and shrines at those holy sites.

St. Helena is most famous for discovering the True Cross on which Jesus died. Perhaps the most significant and interesting church in the world is the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem. It has been built and rebuilt many times, but under one or perhaps several roofs (but all within the same complex building), going up some stairs you can visit Mount Calvary, the site of the Crucifixion and Death of Jesus, and a very short distance away in the main apse of the church stands the small chapel of the tomb, where the Son of God changed everything by rising from the dead on the third day. At the other end of the church, down a couple sets of stairs is a chapel dedicated to St. Helena on the site of her discovery of the Cross of Christ, where the Roman executioners would have tossed it after the Body of Jesus was taken down.

The True Cross was distinguished from those of other criminals by many healings and miracles that occurred by contact with it. Even today in many places, relics of the True Cross survive and are used for the Veneration on Good Friday. The 5th Station of the Cross is one of my favorites for meditation. To think of how Simon of Cyrene was privileged to share in the very same Cross of Christ, yet we know he probably didn’t see it as a privilege at first. And when faced with sufferings ourselves, we rarely recognize in them the great dignity of sharing in Christ’s Passion. But like Simon, being near Christ in our sufferings—even those foisted upon us unwillingly—can change our perspective and help us hope also for a share, through these very same sufferings, in Christ’s Resurrection.

One update: the Stations of the Cross from Holy Trinity in Hosmer will be returned to sacred use at the Newman Center of SDSU. Be sure to visit them in their new setting!
