Would you consider Mass Intentions for Hoven? There are some Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday weekday, Saturday mornings and some first Friday dates available at St Anthony for 2021, sorry almost all weekends are already scheduled. If you would like to have a Mass prayed for someone living or deceased, or some need or in thanksgiving, the suggested donation is $10 per Mass Intention. You may call Melissa at office to see what is available or drop a note in the collection basket. It is very helpful to have some intentions not scheduled and when a date is available it can be scheduled and prayed for on short notice.

Grandparents' Day

This past Tuesday evening my parents stopped by, dropped off a bunch of food, and gave me a haircut before attending events for grandparents of students at Roncalli in Aberdeen. I think I've mentioned before that it's kind of strange seeing my parents now in the role of grandparents. My dad in particular, as I was growing up, I never remember him carrying around Tootsie Rolls, but he is seldom without them now for bribing the grandkids.

Being the youngest in my family, both of my grandfathers died before I was around or old enough to have any memory of them. I remember visiting my grandmothers, especially on Sundays, and for a number of years still in their own homes. Near one house, I remember sledding down a hill and playing on wooden planks spanning a ditch. At the other, there was still an outhouse for a while, and we played around a smaller shed and some fuel tanks. I loved my grandmas, and for a number of years I'd always draw the Stations of the Cross as an Easter gift for each of them.

When I was in college seminary, there were two older priests on staff. I know at least one of them had come out of retirement to work at the seminary again. I'm not sure if I told them this, but I always saw them as grandfatherly figures, even to the whole seminary, but especially for me because I never knew my own grandfathers. One lived on my floor and was my formation director for a number of years. He was always so affirming of each person's gifts that I'd always come away from meetings with him feeling like I could accomplish anything and everything. The other I'd see for Confession sometimes or just around the building or campus. I always found him to be an image of Christ's own gentleness, mercy, and cheerfulness.

Sts. Joachim and Anne are remembered as the parents of Mary, the Mother of God, and therefore the grandparents of Jesus. They are powerful intercessors for all who fill the role of grandparents today, who are so often crucial for handing on and bearing witness to the faith. We should daily be grateful and marvel at all those who handed life and faith down to us, even back through centuries of our ancestors. May we always honor them by serving Christ with all our heart, mind, soul, and strength.

Word of Life

"Suicidal individuals—with or without a terminal illness— typically do not want to die... The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, 'Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?'"
