

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
Sep 5 ~ 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
May the life of every human person, from conception to natural death, be protected in our laws and cherished in our hearts;
 We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

Would you consider Mass Intentions for Hoven? There are some Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday weekday, Saturday mornings and some first Friday dates available at St Anthony for 2021, sorry almost all weekends are already scheduled. If you would like to have a Mass prayed for someone living or deceased, or some need or in thanksgiving, the suggested donation is $10 per Mass Intention. You may call Melissa at office to see what is available or drop a note in the collection basket. It is very helpful to have some intentions not scheduled and when a date is available it can be scheduled and prayed for on short notice. Please note, it is canon law that Mass Intentions be prayed within the one year window of when they are requested.

BNH is seeking volunteers from St Anthony's, Hoven and St Augustine, Bowdle to come lead the rosary with residents as an inspirational activity. If enough individuals take an interest in participating Katelyn, Activity Coordinator @ BNH is hoping to make this a twice monthly scheduled activity, maybe more often. If you are interested in helping out please give Katelyn 605-285-8400 your name and phone number along with which month or months work best for you. This may be done as an individual or as an organization event. Thanks for considering this special activity. Looking to have more volunteers for this. Thank you so very much to those who have already reached out to Katelyn. It is very much appreciated.

 Congratulations to Logan Tosel and Shawnda Rausch who were joined in Holy Matrimony at St Anthony, Hoven on Saturday, August 28, 2021. May God bless their marriage union.

Serving Mammon Quite Faithfully—God, Not So Much

Long considered a spiritual classic, the Imitation of Christ comes up every once in a while in the Office of Readings. My favorite passage was in the reading for Monday of this week, and I can’t help finding it even more striking in light of all that’s happened with the pandemic, environmentalism, or elaborate rules of woke vocabulary. Here’s the passage:

The world promises rewards that are temporal and insignificant, and these are pursued with great longing; I promise rewards that are eternal and unsurpassable, yet the hearts of mortals respond sluggishly. Who serves and obeys me in all matters with as much care as the world and its princes are served? Blush, then, you lazy, complaining servant, for men are better prepared for the works of death than you are for the works of life. They take more joy in vanity than you in truth. (Book 3.3)

It’s obviously a good thing to take reasonable steps to prevent the spread of disease even as we gather to worship God at Holy Mass, but among those who should especially prioritize spiritual and heavenly things, have we seen any comparable effort at stemming the contagion of sin and raising awareness of its dangers not just in this life but for all eternity?

One critique of many Catholic bishops and priests I’ve heard is that they were willing, for example, to ban receiving Communion on the tongue in their dioceses or parishes out of concern for bodily health, but few seem to remember these same shepherds ever having such great concern for the spiritual health of their flocks. Had they ever issued reminders with any comparable urgency about the need to be in the state of sanctifying grace in order to receive Holy Communion, lest we “eat and drink condemnation upon ourselves” (1 Cor. 11:29)?

In other areas, we might just consider how eagerly, with such enthusiasm and energy, many people pursue the false pleasures of drinking bouts and various addictions—scratching an itch that only promises to grow itchier the more it is scratched—and compare how reluctantly and sheepishly so many of us ever broach the subject of our friendship with Christ during a conversation with someone who could benefit from the Gospel. If only the followers of Christ would serve Him with as much vigor as others (or we ourselves) tend to serve instead our false gods. “Athletes deny themselves all sorts of things. They do so to win a crown that withers, but we a crown that is imperishable” (1 Cor. 9:25).

Pope Francis’ Prayer Intentions for September

Universal: An environmentally sustainable lifestyle

We pray that we all will make courageous choices for a simple and environmentally sustainable lifestyle, rejoicing in our young people who are resolutely committed to this.
