40 Days for Life
The visible, public centerpiece of 40 Days for Life is a focused, 40-day, non-stop, round-the-clock prayer vigil outside a single Planned parenthood center or other abortion facility in a community. It is a peaceful and educational presence. Those who are called to stand witness during this 24-hour-a-day presence send a powerful message to the community about the tragic reality of abortion. - 40 Days for Life website

Word of Life

“Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God’s humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child... Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life— especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen.”

World Mission Sunday/
Propagation of the Faith

October 23-24, 2021

Next weekend is World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis reminds us of our baptismal call– to respond as missionaries, saying “We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard” (Acts 4:20). Today we respond to that call, through our prayers and personal sacrifices for our brothers and sisters in the Missions–in places like Uganda where people face food uncertainty and violence...in the Philippines where local clergy face martyrdom...in Oceania where people’s livelihoods are threatened by climate change...and in remote regions of Latin America where people are hearing the Gospel for the first time.

Respond to World Mission Sunday by supporting the priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who provide loving service to those most in need. Thank you!

Just a bit from Fr. Schmidt

Blaming God for Human Sins

A month or so ago, a priest from Ghana in Africa was visiting the area and joined us for supper in Aberdeen. A number of our priests studied with him in St. Paul Seminary. His own vocation story is rather remarkable. He was a simple shepherd when he discovered the Gospel and could hardly believe such a God would care so much about lowly, dirty shepherds as to send Angels to announce to them the birth of Christ and have them as some of His first adorers. Of course, the Son of God was even fond of referring to Himself as the Good Shepherd. Deeply astounded, this man converted to the Faith and pursued studies for the priesthood.

In Ghana, a typical ordination gift is a motorcycle from the diocese to help the priest get around to his many, many mission parishes—often 30 or more—with hundreds of baptisms each year and at every Easter Vigil. Besides distances and cost of fuel, another obstacle is bad roads. At supper, he was telling us about the corruption in government that often perpetuates the low quality of their infrastructure. Certainly corruption has been a growing problem in our own country as well.

How he related this corruption, though, to our relationship with God was really interesting and something I’ve thought about frequently since then. Those who get money for projects often give a lot of it away to their own family and relatives and what’s left for the actual work is just a fraction. The work often ends up being very low quality due to the misuse of funds and can go on for years or decades. Then years after completion, tragedy strikes. A bridge falls down. A school building topples. People get hurt. People die. “Why would God let this happen?”

Why are we blaming God at all? God wasn’t the one stealing funding and building the faulty bridges and buildings. God doesn’t take away our free will, and so many of the tragedies of life are due to human sinfulness. What is tragic is that it’s usually the innocent who suffer most from the sins of others. But that’s not God’s fault. It’s ours.

As this priest returned to Africa, I sent along an extra thurible, incense boat, and bell from Holy Trinity in Hosmer, so these will continue to bring glory to God even on another continent. Also recently, an extra chalice from St. John the Baptist in Onaka was sent to Holy Spirit in Mitchell. They use it now for Sunday Masses there.
