

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
Oct 24 ~ 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

*For women and men suffering after abortion:
 May the Church's abortion healing ministry, Project Rachel, help them find forgiveness and peace through Christ's endless mercy;*

We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

CDA is passing out white ribbons, at St Augustine Church, next weekend Oct 31st to bring awareness of WRAP: White Ribbons Against Pornography. Please wear or display these ribbons to show your support against the sin of pornography.

Celebrating Me/Remembering You Holiday Grief Program - Catholic Family Services will be holding a one-day Holiday Grief Program for children, teens and adults who have lost a loved one through a death. This program will be held November 6, 2021 from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm at 523 N. Duluth Ave., Sioux Falls, SD. A time for games, activities, crafts, discussion.

Ages 6-12 will attend the children's portion and ages 13-17 will attend the teen program. And the adults, will incorporate art as an expression of grief. Pre-registration is required as numbers will be limited. Call Catholic Family Services at 988-3775 for more information.

Annual Inmate Prison Christmas Packages

Due to coronavirus precautions, the Department of Corrections has requested that there be no homemade fudge in the Inmate Christmas Package this year. This is unfortunate since this program has been taking place since 1989 and enjoyed by thousands of inmates over the years. A decision has been made to continue with a Christmas Sack for over 3500 inmates with prepackaged items. For many inmates this is the only Christmas gift they will receive. The prison chaplains have set a goal to raise $11,500 by Friday, November 12th to give time to order and receive the items to be given out on Christmas Eve. Christmas is a very difficult and lonely time for inmates and this small gesture can lift their spirits. Please join the prison chaplains in this beautiful act of charity and Corporal Work of Mercy "visit the imprisoned". Donations can be sent by November 12th to SD Prison Chaplains Assoc., Christmas Sacks, 601 W 57th St., Sioux Falls SD 57108. Please write Christmas Sacks in the memo line. For more information visit the Prison Ministry link on the Sioux Falls diocese website <https://www.sfcatholic.org/prison-ministry/>. Word of Life

"I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. ...But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. ...The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation."

World Mission Sunday/ Propagation of the Faith October 23-24, 2021

This weekend is World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis reminds us of our baptismal call— to respond as missionaries, saying "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). Today we respond to that call, through our prayers and personal sacrifices for our brothers and sisters in the Missions—in places like Uganda where people face food uncertainty and violence...in the Philippines where local clergy face martyrdom...in Oceania where people's livelihoods are threatened by climate change...and in remote regions of Latin America where people are hearing the Gospel for the first time. Respond to World Mission Sunday by supporting the priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who provide loving service to those most in need. Thank you!

Just a bit from Fr. Schmidt

Lion of Judah

I'm certainly glad to have finished my days of COVID isolation and return to normal interactions. Thank you for your patience and flexibility. It sounds like the other priests and deacons who tested positive for it are also recovering well, but please do especially keep them in your continued prayers. With mostly just a bit of sinus drainage and a mild cough, my own symptoms have been mercifully light and easy enough to deal with. The change in taste and smell is still the most annoying, but I have indications that those, too, are returning. Older or heavier priests may not have had it as easy as I, though.

One great thing during these days is that I've been hitting my Scripture-reading target again, about 4 chapters each day. If I keep it up, I should be able to finish out the New Testament before the end of the year. I'm currently in Luke, which we studied during Clergy Days this year, since Luke will be the focus of the Sunday Lectionary starting this December. I think if I really had to pick a favorite Gospel, Luke's would be it because of so many unique features and Parables (Good Samaritan, Prodigal Son) and for his emphasis on the Gospel being sent to all the nations of the world.

Every gospel account, though, features the mysterious figure of Christ, always saying or doing things that made His listeners both wonder and often react even with anger or violence. There's something about just reading through the words of the Gospel that brings out and renews the strangeness of the God-Man that those who saw Him walking on earth must have experienced. Jesus is "the same yesterday, today, and forever." He is still the Lion of Judah, untamed, even as He becomes the Lamb of God for our salvation and nourishment.

Too often we just sort of place Jesus in a box and think we have Him figured out. We don't allow Him to challenge and unsettle us. We think He'll demand more than we're yet willing to give, and we forget that He also supplies the strength we need to respond to His invitation. This past Friday was the Feast of Pope St. John Paul II who so often reiterated, "Do not be afraid. Do not be afraid. Open, I say open wide the doors for Christ." He will take nothing that we actually need, and He gives everything that truly satisfies.
