For Sale by Sealed Bid: 1975 Honey Bee Tractor/Loader (Super-C International), located in St. Anthony's Cemetery. Sold "as is". Submit bid to St. Anthony's Church, PO Box 339, Bowdle, SD 57428. Mark outside of envelope: Honey Bee bid. Closing date for bids October 6, 2021.

Would you consider Mass Intentions for Hoven? There are some Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday weekday, Saturday mornings and some first Friday dates available at St Anthony for 2021, sorry almost all weekends are already scheduled. If you would like to have a Mass prayed for someone living or deceased, or some need or in thanksgiving, the suggested donation is $10 per Mass Intention. You may call Melissa at office to see what is available or drop a note in the collection basket. It is very helpful to have some intentions not scheduled and when a date is available it can be scheduled and prayed for on short notice.

40 Days for Life

As division and anger fill our culture, what a joy to peacefully take the love and mercy of Jesus Christ to the front lines. 40 Days for Life has proven, campaign after campaign, to be a source of healing for so many who are abused, lonely, and feel they have no other option than to pay a doctor to end the life of their child.—Shawn Carney, President , 40 Days for Life

Word of Life

"St. Joseph's 'yes' to the Lord meant that regardless of the hardship and personal sacrifice to himself, he consistently chose to put the needs of Mary and Jesus before his own. Joseph's devotion helps reveal to us our own call to show special care for the lives of those whom God has entrusted to us."

The Powers Tremble

With Michael as my middle name, I've always had some devotion to the Holy Angels, whether the Archangels Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, or our Guardian Angels. Both of these Feast days fell during this past week: September 29 and October 2. Besides the Angels and Archangels, the nine choirs of Angels also include Principalities, Powers, Virtues, Dominions, Thrones, Cherubim, and Seraphim.

From different artistic depictions of Angels, including chubby baby faces of Cherubs, we might get the impression that these are just sweet and gentle spirits, but this is a very far cry from the witness of Sacred Scripture. Throughout the Bible, human beings who realize that they have actually come into contact with Angels are terrified by the experience, hence the Angels' almost constant refrain of, "Do not be afraid." They've also been known to wrestle with Jacob, wage war, and release plagues upon the earth.

But these terrifying creatures also tremble in the presence of Almighty God. The Angels are mentioned in almost every Preface of the Mass, as it is the hymn of the Seraphim that we repeat as we cry, "Holy, holy, holy..." (Isaiah 6:3). Several Prefaces confess to God that "the Angels praise your majesty, Dominions adore and Powers tremble before you." I wonder at what the Angels must 'see' at Mass. Without physical senses, they are perhaps more tuned in to what is really happening. The Angels see bread and wine offered upon the altar, but as the priest pronounces the very words that Jesus used at the Last Supper, "This is my Body," and, "This is the chalice of my Blood," the bread and wine vanish from their sight. Taking their place, the King of all the Universe, Jesus Christ, is then the only One seen upon the altar by the Angels, and seeing, they tremble in His Presence. God grant us that same spiritual vision, to know by faith what Angels and Saints know by sight—to know, and to tremble.

This week I'll be joining Bishop DeGrood and most of the priests and deacons of the diocese for our annual Clergy Days across the river from Chamberlain. Please pray for us that this would be a time of renewal and rededication in our proclamation of the Gospel and celebration of the mysteries of God for His holy people throughout the Diocese of Sioux Falls. Holy Angels of God, watch over us teach us to see what you see.
