

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
Nov 7 ~ 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

*For all public officials, especially those newly elected:
 May they strive to govern with the wisdom of God, and protect life from conception to natural death;*

We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

Thank you to all the teens who joined us for pumpkin carving, it was a fun night with the Luther League! What a blessing to see everyone having fun together and supporting each other and the pumpkins all turned out great!

Welcoming the Host

It may have something to do with my being the youngest in my family, but I've never been great at hospitality. And it seems like my time as a seminarian and now as a priest has given far more opportunity to be hosted than to host. My parents and sister have come up to stay with me a few times now, so I at least know how to set out fresh towels and replace the sheets. This past Thursday, I hosted our deanery meeting for 12 other priests and a deacon in the rectory in Bowdle. I think it went pretty well. Definitely would have had more room in the church basement, but I wasn't sure if we'd need the WiFi for someone to Zoom into the meeting.

One thing discussed was the Synod on Synodality that Rome has called for and is already underway within dioceses. We're not sure what it will look like in our deanery (Aberdeen-Pierre) or in parishes, but keep an eye out for related upcoming events. The main emphasis is on listening, and especially listening to those who feel their concerns haven't been heard or taken seriously by the Church.

In a sense, it is an effort to exercise hospitality towards many who have lost or suffered the weakening of the sense of feeling at home in the Church. Of course, if that alienation comes more from personal opposition to what God has revealed for our salvation and authentic human flourishing, there's conversion that needs to happen, but identifying where there is a disconnect, whether procedurally on the part of the Church or personally on the part of the Christian can help us draw closer to God.

While I may not host many banquets at the rectory, I am certainly aware and humbled by my duty to serve at the Lord's table, to nourish the members of His Church with "every word that comes forth from the mouth of God," for we do not live by bread alone, and to celebrate and provide the Lord's Supper, His own Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in these parishes. I pray to be a good host at the Lord's Supper, or rather, a good servant as we all approach Jesus, our true Host and true Food. May we all practice true hospitality to make Him welcome in our hearts and minds, and in every area of our daily lives.
