

Word of Life Intercessions for Life

Jan 2 ~ Epiphany of the Lord

On this Feast of the Epiphany, may we be given the grace to always see in others the face of Christ our Savior;

We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

Please Note: If you are sick or a caregiver of someone who is sick or NO travel is advised, there is a dispensation from attending Mass in person. Please tune in to the Bishop's TV Mass CBS Sun mornings @ 10 AM or watch a Mass on YouTube. Help us, keep you and I and others safe!

Join us on January 30th to stand up for LIFE!

We have chartered a 55-passenger bus to take area pro-lifers down to the Hour of Reflection and the Life Chain Walk on Sunday, January 30th. The bus will pick up and drop off people in Aberdeen, Ipswich, Roscoe, Bowdle, Hoven, Gettysburg, and elsewhere along the way if needed. We will arrive in Pierre for the Life Chain Walk around the capitol by 12:00 PM. People are encouraged to bring their Right to Life banners or other pro-life signs. At 1:00 PM refreshments and snacks will be served in the capitol. At 2:00 PM the Hour of Reflection program entitled "The Sanctity of Human Life" will be held in the capitol rotunda featuring a number of remarkably inspirational pro-life speakers along with entertainment. The bus will head back at around 3:30 PM.

Suggested donations to help cover a portion of the costs for the bus: (early bird: $20 per individual by December 29 OR $30 per individual after that date.) Bagged lunches will be provided en route to Pierre. Contact Spencer Cody at spencercody@hotmail.com or 605-228-4886 for more information. Make check out to Aberdeen Area Right to Life and send it to Spencer Cody, 342 N. Sunset Dr., Mina, SD 57451 in order to reserve your seat. Seats are first come, first serve.

God in Man Made Manifest

A number of years ago, I first came across the custom of blessing chalk on the Solemnity of the Epiphany. I had never seen or heard of it in my first decade of life. For those not familiar, the custom is for each family to gather at the entrance of their home and pray for God’s blessings upon them and upon all who enter under their roof during the new year. The head of the household takes chalk blessed on the Day of Epiphany and writes on the lintel over the main entrance to the house and perhaps over other entrances or doorways, “2 0 + C + M + B + 2 2” while pronouncing (if possible) in his best Latin, “Christus Mansionem Benedicat,” meaning, “May Christ bless the house.” The letters “CMB” also stand for the traditional names of the three wise men: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. The numbers at each end are for the current year.

In many Eastern churches, the Feast of the Epiphany is celebrated with even more festivity than Christmas. The Epiphany, from the Greek word for “unveiling, revelation, manifestation,” recalls the visit of the three magi and the first revelation of the Christ Child to non-Jewish nations, whom the magi represent. Many Christians still exchange gifts on the Feast of the Epiphany since that’s when the magi brought their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Besides the visit of the magi, there are two other moments from the life of Jesus connected to this Great Feast: the Baptism of the Lord and the Wedding Feast at Cana. Jesus being baptized by John in the River Jordan is often considered the first clear revelation of God as a Trinity of Persons: the Father manifested in the voice from heaven, the Son Jesus standing in the river, and the Holy Spirit descending upon Him bodily like a dove. Unlike most other baptisms where the water is used by God to make the one being baptized holy, when Jesus was baptized, He actually made the waters holy. Some Christians still practice the Epiphany tradition of taking a dip in a freezing lake to recall the Lord’s Baptism and one’s own baptism. I wouldn’t necessarily recommend trying it around here.

The changing of water into wine at Cana is regarded as Christ’s first public miracle, the manifestation of His divine power. By the grace of the Lord’s Epiphany, may we always make Christ more manifest, better known throughout the world by our own words and actions.

Pope Francis’ Prayer Intentions for January

Evangelization: For true human fraternity

We pray for all those suffering from religious discrimination and persecution; may their own rights and dignity be recognized, which originate from being brothers and sisters in the human family.
