

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
Mar 20 ~ 3rd Sunday of Lent

May all who suffer from the wounds of abortion be filled with the hope that does not disappoint, and be healed by Christ;

We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

St Augustine is in need of more Mass Intentions. Right now there are only a few Mass Intentions left. If you would like to have a Mass Intention prayed for someone please indicate if living or deceased, the suggested donation is $10 each. You may put in an envelope and drop in the collection or in the mail.

We remember our sister in Christ, Merici Rader , who was called home to the Lord on Sat, March 5. Her funeral Mass was held on Fri March 18, 2022 at St. Anthony’s, Hoven. We offer our prayers and support to her family. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through Your mercy, rest in peace. Amen.”

Word of Life

"To celebrate the Gospel of life means to celebrate the God of life, the God who gives life...In every child which is born and in every person who lives or dies we see the image of God's glory. We celebrate this glory in every human being, a sign of the living God, an icon of Jesus Christ" (The Gospel of Life 84).

Clearing Out the Clutter

Now that we're back on Daylight Saving Time and had some warmer temperatures this week, it's feeling more and more like spring. I've been out for a brief, barefoot run already, although I'll probably stick closer to the church sidewalk next time. Quite a bit of loose rock still laying around. A lot of us probably try to do some spring cleaning this time of year. It's amazing how much can accumulate in a short time and how much clutter we can get used to.

Even more important than cleaning around the house, lawn, garage, barn, or shed, is clearing out the clutter of our spiritual lives. Lent is the natural time of spring cleaning for our souls. The Sacrament of Confession is the most important in this respect, clearing out the sins—especially any grave sins—that have crowded out God from our hearts. Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving also gives us the opportunity to purify our attachments to lesser things, things that may not be sinful in themselves but often distract us and detract us from our relationship with God. "Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be" (Mt. 6:21). If we want our hearts to belong to God, we need to treasure Him above all else.

If we don't yet treasure God above all else, then changing our affections usually takes some actual work. We don't just fast and persevere through hunger or the desire for movies or chocolate or whatever else we've given up to show God that we value Him more already. Engaging in fasting actually helps to bring this about, to break our excessive attachment to created things and to reattach our affections more firmly to God. It also brings us greater awareness of just how attached we really are to so many things that are less than God.

There's a quote from St. Augustine on the old Feast of the Apostle St. Matthias (Feb. 24) that I've been thinking about almost every day since then. Reflecting on our high calling to heavenly realms, he says, "Seeing God is promised to us. Seeing the true God, the supreme God. For those who worship false gods see them easily, they see those 'who have eyes and see not.' But to us is promised the vision of the living God, the God who sees." We spend so much time today staring at things that are not looking back at us! We labor and serve gods that cannot see us, that do not care about us. How often do we remember that every time we look for God, He is already staring back at us? Do we know what His look of love looks like? Do we let His Eyes change our hearts, free us from shame in the radiance of His Light, and strengthen us to cling to Him? Now is the time to start.
