Word of Life

“Everyone is in need of reassurance, and if we, who have touched ‘the Word of life’ (1 Jn 1:1) do not give it, who will? How beautiful it is to be Christians who offer consolation, who bear the burdens of others and who offer encouragement: messengers of life in a time of death!”

St Anthony Circle Leaders please collect the annual $20 dues from your circle member families to turn in at the Monday June 6 St Anthony Altar Society meeting.

Circle 2 members: Nancy K. would like you to please bring your dues to our monthly church cleaning on Wed May 18 @ 6:30 PM.

Taken from Just a bit article May 8 Bulletin. During these summer months, I’d also like to start offering something I did when I was back at the Cathedral in Sioux Falls: Latin lessons. A number of families have expressed an interest in learning the basics of the Latin language. I already have around ten lessons prepared that I’ve taught before. When we get through those, we’ll see where we’re at and if there’s still a desire for additional lessons. Handouts will be available even if someone misses a session or more, and it may be possible to record lessons as well. I was thinking every other Sunday after the Latin Mass, so around 3:15 pm in the basement of the church in Hoven starting on May 22, then June 5, and so on.

Confirmation Misconceptions

It has been two years since we’ve celebrated Confirmations in these parishes. Because of COVID, I was delegated by the Bishop to celebrate those last time, but hopefully he’ll be able to make it up this way next year. We are planning on a Confirmation Mass sometime during the next academic year, hopefully in the spring, so parents who have children that have not yet been confirmed should be thinking about it.

People today tend to have a lot of misconceptions about the Sacrament of Confirmation. One most prevalent and frustrating is that once someone has been confirmed, they should be done with their religious education. But Confirmation is one of three Sacraments of Initiation. Initiation refers to the beginning, not the end. Our education in the faith is a lifelong process. Traditionally, the instruction we receive prior to the celebration of these sacraments is referred to as catechesis, while the instruction we receive after Initiation—no less important—is called mystagogy, instruction given to those who have already been transformed by the mysteries of God, the sacraments.

Confirmation is also not our opportunity to make a conscious Yes to God after most of us were too little at the time of our Baptism to do so. Like all the sacraments, we are asked to participate fully and consciously, as best we can, but the overwhelming emphasis should always be on God’s action in the sacraments, who is always the initiator and even provides the grace for our response. “We love because He first loved us” (1 Jn 4:19). This misconception of finally giving our Yes to God makes even less sense when you consider that most have already been receiving the very Body and Blood of Christ in Holy Communion for years before being confirmed and saying “Amen,” to God each time they do so, a much more serious Yes.

Theologically, the proper order for receiving the Sacraments of Initiation was Baptism first, then Confirmation, then the Eucharist as the crown and completion. But since Pope St. Pius X reduced the age required for reception of Holy Communion in the early 20th century, many areas failed to follow suit with the Sacrament of Confirmation, which has led to them being out of sequence only for the past century or so.

The main difference between the grace of Baptism and the grace of Confirmation is that while Baptism transforms and disposes us to receive grace from God for our own sanctification, Confirmation strengthens us especially to publicly proclaim the Gospel and share the grace of God with others, like the Apostles did after Pentecost. Seems to me, with all the temptations and challenges our children face today at younger and younger ages, they could really benefit from the grace of Confirmation earlier on. And if we are really called to be Lifelong Catholic Missionary Disciples through God’s Love, they’d be strengthened to also share the faith from a young age. I’m very open to working with parents and kids who are interested in celebrating Confirmation at earlier ages than what has been typical.

Faith-Filled Young People

We pray for all young people, called to live life to the fullest; may they see in Mary’s life the way to listen, the depth of discernment, the courage that faith generates, and the dedication to service.
