

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
June 12 ~ The Most Holy Trinity

May society more deeply respect the human person, who is created, redeemed, and made holy by the gracious action of the Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit;

We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

Short Prayer to Saint Anthony

Wondrous Saint Anthony, glorious for the fame of your miracles, you had the happiness of receiving in your arms our blessed Lord as a little child. Obtain for me from His mercy this favor that I desire from the bottom of my heart: (mention your request)

Since you were so gracious to poor sinners, do not regard the lack of merit on the part of him who calls upon you, but consider the glory of God, which will by exalted once more through you, by the salvation of my soul and the granting of the petition that I now earnestly present to you.

As a pledge of my gratitude, I beg you to accept my promise to live henceforth more faithfully according to the teaching of the Gospel and to be devoted to the service of the poor whom you ever loved and still love so much. Bless this my resolution and obtain for me the grace to be faithful to it till death. Amen

Word of Life

"In modern times, children in their mothers' wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the 'least of these' in our world's estimation. Practices such as abortion and assisted suicide tragically reject the truth that human life is always to be cherished and defended with loving concern. ... Through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, may Our Lord grant us the grace to truly and courageously live his Gospel of life."

Find Rest in God

"Come away by yourselves to a secluded place and rest a while" (Mark 6:31). This week I'll be away on retreat at the Abbey of the Hills. All priests are required by the Church's law to make an annual retreat for our spiritual health. I think this will be my first time making a retreat at the Abbey. I had only been there a couple times while it was still Blue Cloud Abbey with Benedictine monks living there. Last year, I stayed there for a Labor Day gathering they hosted for priests. I'm looking forward to the opportunity to spend some extra time in prayer and reflection this week.

I mentioned in a homily a rule of thumb once told to me, that we should spend one hour each day, one day every month, and one week every year in more deliberate prayer and recollection. We get pulled in so many directions today that we need these times to re-collect ourselves, gather ourselves back together when we tend to spread ourselves too thin the rest of the time. Not everyone has the opportunity, but if we take time for travel or vacation, do we ever devote a similar time away for specifically spiritual renewal?

One of the most central commandments in all the Law and in the life of Israel concerned Sabbath rest and worship of God. For Christian's, we observe the Lord's Day: Sunday, when Jesus rose from the dead. God commands us to gather for Sunday Mass and to rest and recollect ourselves because it is real and critical need for human beings. Even Jesus Himself knew this well, often "rising very early in the morning, while it was still dark," to go to deserted places to pray (Mark 1:35). "For You have made us for Yourself, O Lord, and our heart is restless until it rests in You" (St. Augustine, Confessions I.i).

Next Sunday we'll be observing the Feast of Corpus Christi or the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. Someone once compared Eucharistic adoration to going sunbathing. It gives Jesus, the Sun of Justice "with healing in His rays," the opportunity to work on us, to give us a sort of spiritual tan even when we don't always recognize or experience the benefits as it's happening, little by little (Mal. 4:2). As we see more of the sun and daylight hours as summer approaches, let's not miss out on opportunities to receive more from the Light of light, Christ Jesus our Lord.
