

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
Aug 21 ~ 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

For all Catholics:

That we may steadfastly proclaim and uphold the dignity of all human life, in all stages and circumstances;

We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

St. Augustine Parish Picnic will take place at 11:30am on Sunday, Aug 28 at the Bowdle city park after the 10am Mass. Drake's Place will provide chicken, baked beans along with cheese and pepperoni pizza for the kids. Families are asked to bring either a side dish or a dessert. Utensils and drinks will be provided. There will be games and, weather permitting, water fun for the kids. Please plan to attend!

Word of Life

"God's love — individual, real, unchanging — is the true source of our worth, identity, and dignity. It really is not a question of who we are, but rather whose we are. Because his love will never change, nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can diminish the immeasurable worth of our lives."

Church Support Aug 13 - 14

We remember our sister in Christ, Ann Thomsen, who was called home to the Lord on Fri, August 12. Her funeral Mass was held on Wed August 17, 2022 at St. Augustine, Bowdle. We offer our prayers and support to her family. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through Your mercy, rest in peace. Amen.

Back to School

Hard to believe that classes are already starting back up again this week. The number of daylight hours has also grown noticeably shorter with some cooler temperatures at night. It's been a few years since I've had to go back to school in the fall, but I always think back to those days when it comes around.

There's still so much that God desires to teach me and each one of us, no matter how many years we've been out of school. One of the greatest things about being a priest is having the privilege to meet and get to know so many outstanding people and to begin to see the wonderful ways in which God works in our lives. If we're open to it, God can teach us every day through the Scriptures and sacraments as well as through the events and people we encounter.

Our exams may be less formal than for those still in school, our assignments less academic, but in many ways we're called to remain students throughout our entire lives. The concept of lifelong learning has been around for many years and takes many forms. The Vatican has also written about the ongoing formation of priests, even after their years of formal seminary education. Blessed John Henry Newman once wrote, "In a higher world it is otherwise, but here below to live is to change, and to be perfect is to have changed often" (On the Development of Christian Doctrine, 40). I hope that we can always keep an open mind and continue to learn from everything and everyone that God puts in our lives, even from the most difficult trials and from people with whom we disagree.

For all of us, our "One Teacher is the Christ," the Truth in Person (Matthew 23:10). And there's just one final exam that will really matter. "At the end of life, we will not be judged by how many diplomas we have received, how much money we have made, how many great things we have done. We will be judged by, 'I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat; I was naked, and you clothed me; I was homeless, and you took me in'" (St. Teresa of Calcutta). "At the evening of life, we shall be judged on our love" (St. John of the Cross, Sayings 64). May God teach us to love not only "in word and speech, but in deed and truth" (1 John 3:18).
