

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
Oct 2 ~ 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

For all Catholics:
On this Respect Life Sunday, may we resolve anew to protect the gift of every human life and consider how we can serve moms in need;

We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

St Augustine Altar Society met on Thurs Sept 22. We discussed some items needed for the church kitchen and also looking into a changing table installed in the women's bathroom. Plans for a Bake Sale held in Oct. Parish ladies are asked to bring baked items or homemade goodies, jelly, salsa, pickles etc. This is always an excellent fundraiser for the Altar Society. See article in bulletin for more details on bake sale. Next meeting Mon Oct 10 @ 7 PM.

Mass Intention requests are being accepted for "Noon Weekday Masses" at St Augustine Church to be prayed for by Fr Timothy Smith. Contact the parish office with your requests, Melissa at 605-285-6466 ext 2 or send to St Augustine Parish, PO Box 310, Bowdle. Please be sure to indicate 'Noon Weekday Mass'.

Would you consider Mass Intentions for Hoven & Bowdle ? There are weekdays, Saturday mornings, first Fridays, 8:00 AM Sunday 10 AM Sunday & 2 PM Sunday dates available at St Anthony & St Augustine for 2022. Sorry most all Saturday 5:00 PM have already been scheduled. If you would like to have a Mass prayed for someone living or deceased, or some need or in thanksgiving, the suggested donation is $10 per Mass Intention. You may call Melissa at office to see what is available or drop a note in the collection basket. It is very helpful to have some intentions not scheduled and when a date is available it can be scheduled and prayed for on short notice. Thank you to those who already sent in Mass Intentions. It is greatly appreciated!!

Word of Life

“The witness of our Blessed Mother invites us to become more aware of the needs of pregnant and parenting moms in our own parishes and communities... Following Mary’s example, we can ask ourselves how to better know these mothers, listen to them, seek understanding, and help them obtain the necessities of life for themselves and their children. How can we, like the Blessed Mother, lovingly support mothers in welcoming and caring for God’s gift of life?”

Bishop DeGrood has written a letter entitled “Set Ablaze”. Also a link to a website has been setup with the same name. Letter was sent via email to the households of the diocese where there is an email on file with your email info. If you have an email and did not receive Bishop’s letter and want to receive it, please contact the parish office to make sure we have your correct email address on file. For those of you who receive the monthly Bishop’s Bulletin it will be published in the October issue.

The Sight of the Angels

With Michael as my middle name, I’ve always had some devotion to the Holy Angels, whether the Archangels Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, (with their feast on September 29) or our Guardian Angels (October 2). Besides the Angels and Archangels, the nine choirs of Angels also include Principalities, Powers, Virtues, Dominions, Thrones, Cherubim, and Seraphim.

From different artistic depictions of Angels, including chubby baby faces of Cherubs, we might get the impression that these are just sweet and gentle spirits, but this is a very far cry from the witness of Sacred Scripture. Throughout the Bible, human beings who realize that they have actually come into contact with Angels are terrified by the experience, hence the Angels’ almost constant refrain of, “Do not be afraid.” They’ve also been known to wrestle with Jacob, wage war, and release plagues upon the earth.

But these terrifying creatures also tremble in the presence of Almighty God. The Angels are mentioned in almost every Preface of the Mass, as it is the hymn of the Seraphim that we repeat as we cry, “Holy, holy, holy...” (Isaiah 6:3). Several Prefaces confess to God that “the Angels praise your majesty, Dominions adore and Powers tremble before you.” I wonder at what the Angels must ‘see’ at Mass. Without physical senses, they are perhaps more tuned in to what is really happening. The Angels see bread and wine offered upon the altar, but as the priest pronounces the very words that Jesus used at the Last Supper, “This is my Body,” and, “This is the chalice of my Blood,” the bread and wine vanish from their sight. Taking their place, the King of all the Universe, Jesus Christ, is then the only One seen upon the altar by the Angels, and seeing, they tremble in His Presence. God grant us that same spiritual vision, to know by faith what Angels and Saints know by sight—to know, and to tremble.

This week I’ll be joining Bishop DeGrood and most of the priests and deacons of the diocese for our annual Clergy Days across the river from Chamberlain. Please pray for us that this would be a time of renewal and rededication in our proclamation of the Gospel and celebration of the mysteries of God for His holy people throughout the Diocese of Sioux Falls. Holy Angels of God, watch over us and teach us to see what you see.
