Word of Life

"By our baptism, we are members of Christ's body and sharers in his mission. Imitating Christ, we must care for all members of our communities, honoring each person as unique, sacred, and created in the image of God."

St. Joseph, patron of the unborn, pray for us.

Please Note:

Restoration began on Wed Sept 7 @ St Anthony. The scaffolding is set up and with the dust and debris from this project, the main part of the church will not be fit to safely hold a Mass. Fr Schmidt still plans to have Masses and activities, just may not be where we were used to attending them. Church basement (not handicap accessible) maybe utilized or perhaps other buildings in Hoven. We don't want to delay the project. Pending any unforeseen issues, 8 weeks would put the tentative completion date about November 2. Fr Schmidt and others are doing their best to help this project move along as smoothly as possible. Your patience and willingness to adjust, help tremendously during this time.

Fr Smith will offer Mass at Noon on most weekdays at St Augustine. You are welcome to attend.

Close to Jesus to the Last

This coming Wednesday and Thursday are special Feasts: the Exaltation of the Holy Cross and Our Lady of Sorrows. The dates correspond to the Dedication of the Basilica of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem back in the year 327, after the discovery of the True Cross by St. Helena, the mother of Emperor Constantine, who legalized the Christian religion in the Roman Empire. The whole month of September is devoted in a special way to Our Lady of Sorrows, who—above any other Saint, as Co-Redemptrix—was strengthened by God to follow Jesus along His Way of the Cross and to join the sufferings of a mother's Immaculate Heart to His supreme Sacrifice for our salvation.

It seems appropriate that as we approach the beginning of autumn in the Northern Hemisphere, as much of what is green turns brown or other colors, and life seems to fade from much of the natural world around us, the Church directs our minds once again to the sorrows and death that saved the world. Another reminder that even as the Death of Jesus on the Cross was not the end, so the fading and colder temperatures of this season will not be the end—even if we'll have to wait more than a few days for spring to return.

Bishop Emeritus Paul Swain (emeritus is the term used for retired bishops, the Latin word for "having completed one's service") would often mention the Seven Sorrows of Mary as especially comforting, to know that our Blessed Mother endured many hardships and anxieties similar to our own even throughout her life. That our own sufferings are not pointless but have value in God's eyes when joined to the saving Cross of Christ. As we head towards cooler days, let's take the Blessed Virgin as a constant companion. Reflecting upon all that she endured can help to lighten our own burdens and bring perspective to our sufferings. With firm faith, she continued to magnify the Lord who had done great things in her, to know that Christ would rise again, as He had promised.

The Seven Sorrows of Mary:

1. The Prophecy of Simeon ("A sword of sorrow shall pierce your heart.")
2. The Flight into Egypt
3. The Loss of the Child Jesus in the Temple
4. Meeting Jesus on His Way of the Cross
5. The Crucifixion
6. The Taking Down of the Body of Jesus from the Cross
7. The Burial of Jesus

Pope Francis' Prayer Intentions for September
