

Word of Life Intercessions for Life
Oct 23 ~ 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

For women and men suffering after abortion:
May the Church's abortion healing ministry, Project Rachel, help them find peace and healing through Christ's endless mercy;

We pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

A BIG thank you to all those who were so generous with providing goodies and baked items for the St Augustine Bake & Goodie Sale and especially to all those who came out and purchased those baked items and goodies, held last Friday Oct 14! Your efforts are appreciated!

Word of Life

"I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. ...But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. ... The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. "

Parish Clusters

If you've seen the maps depicting the new pastorates and linked parishes, you can start to understand how big of a change is coming not just to the parishes here but throughout the Diocese. Besides the increased number of parishes clustered or linked together under the pastoral care of one or up to four priests, one of the other main changes under this structure is that each pastorate, each of the circles, will have just one priest designated as pastor for all the parishes in that area. The idea is that having a smaller number of pastors more skilled or willing to engage in more of the administrative tasks of parish life will free up the other priests for greater efforts in evangelization, teaching, spiritual and liturgical formation, home visits, etc.

A lot of the practicalities in each pastorate will start to be worked out once they are implemented next July, including, for example, local discussions of how best to allocate the number of weekend Masses recommended based on the size and attendance in each church and the number of priests in each pastorate. At this early stage, the Diocese is mainly just looking for feedback about the configuration of the pastorates (the circles), whether it makes more sense for Bowdle to be grouped with Ipswich or Mobridge, for example.

One change that I've already witnessed since these were shown to the priests and deacons on August 11 is that Hoven and Gettysburg were originally grouped with Mobridge rather than Pierre. So there could be a few more edits based on feedback before the finalized configuration is confirmed and released. Keep in mind that the goal is to set us up to be in a good place throughout the Diocese for the number of priests we'll expect to have in 2032, along with some flexibility for contingencies and to keep our priests healthy, happy, and holy.

However it all shakes out, it's clear that greater collaboration between parishes is expected, along with relying less upon the priests for certain things that can be handled by volunteers or staff. One area that comes to mind is having at least a few different people trained as sacristans to set up for Mass and as organists to lead the choir. Parish funds are available to pay for piano/organ lessons for anyone willing and having some aptitude. Above all, continue to pray for holy priestly vocations.
