Word of Life

“People often say, “I could never handle a child with a disability.” But the beauty of parenting is that you aren’t given a child with a disability.
You are given your child with a disability. Your child enters the world in a relationship with you, and that changes everything. You are not called to ‘handle’ a disability. You are called to love a particular person, and caring for him or her grows out of that love.”

Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the unborn, pray for us.
St. Joseph, patron of the unborn, pray for us.

Our sympathies to Rick & Carmen Rohrbach and families on the passing of Rick’s father, Melvin Rohrbach. His funeral was Friday morning April 28 at St Paul Lutheran Church, Bowdle.

Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered mission territories because they are unable to fund essential pastoral activities in their communities. Your support funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous. There are envelopes at the back of church or in your collection boxes if you wish to donate.

Month of Mary

Especially after a long winter, it's great to finally be able to welcome spring as we enter May, the month dedicated to our Blessed Mother Mary, she who alone was found worthy to bring forth the surpassing Light of the Son of God into this world of darkness in our very flesh. She is the solitary boast of our race, prepared beforehand by God for this most exalted vocation by the grace of the Immaculate Conception. So even as we greet with joy the lengthened days of sunlight, the greening of all that was dry and brown, flowers and birds and new life all around, and as we continue to celebrate the Lord's own Resurrection from the darkness of the grave throughout this Easter season, we also keep before our eyes throughout this month the all-beautiful vision of Mary the Mother of God and Queen of heaven.

Now would be a great time to begin or get back into the habit of praying a daily Rosary. Throughout the many times in history our Lady has appeared to different people, she has consistently asked us to pray the Rosary daily for the conversion of sinners and in reparation for sins committed, to call down God's mercy upon the earth. And meditation upon the mysteries of the life of Christ and His Mother is essential for our growth in the virtues, "to imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise."

One recent bit of news related to Mary is the renaming of the only officially approved apparition in the United States. Long known as Our Lady of Good Help, the shrine near Champion, Wisconsin, commemorating the 1859 apparitions of our Blessed Mother to Adele Brise has been renamed Our Lady of Champion. This is more in line with the names of other apparitions, named for the place (like Our Lady of Fatima or Lourdes) rather than any devotional title of Mary. I still have yet to make a pilgrimage there myself. I have heard it is still a pretty simple and humble place, much like our Blessed Mother herself, but it's worth looking up and visiting if you ever get the chance. One of the miracles associated was a fire that consumed everything up to the fence line all around but left just that property completely unharmed. May our Blessed Mother always intercede for us and bring us whole and unharmed into eternal dwellings out of the devastation of this present age.
