Father Michael's Musings

Snow:
years of anger following hours that float idly down —
the blizzard
drifts its weight
deeper and deeper for three days or sixty years, eh? Then the sun! a clutter of yellow and blue flakes — Hairy looking trees stand out in long alleys
over a wild solitude.
The man turns and there —
his solitary track stretched out upon the world.
(William Carlos Williams)

We leave a mark in the world, don't we? In some mysterious way, we leave our footsteps on the world as we depart from it. What path do we wish to have journeyed? What mark do we wish to leave? Advent: the glorious time to stop, listen, redirect if needed, and trudge again through the world with good boots and a generous heart. As the Canadians say: Bon Hiver! Happy Winter!
