Father Michael's Musings

This Tuesday the Church celebrates the Feast Day of Saints Martha, Mary and Lazarus, referred to in the Gospels as the friends of Jesus.

It is a wonderful thing to remember that Jesus had friends, people he enjoyed being with, dining with and who enjoyed his company as well.

Friends are such an amazing gift, and sometimes in our hectic family lives, we forget what a blessing they are to us.

Friendship is that supple relationship that can withstand distance and time-away in ways marriage and parenting cannot. It is the most sublimely flexible relationship we have in our lives.

Friends choose to be our friends, they so often see the truth of who we are in ways even spouses can miss, and which we certainly miss ourselves.

Rejoice in them, as even the Lord did with his friends. And rejoice that he calls "you friends"; that his relationship with you is as deep, as flexible and as affirming as with your best of friends.

Be a good friend as you let Jesus befriend you. He is always there when we gather as friends.

summer WITH THE saints

Parishioners can grow in faith this summer by journeying with the saints! Formed is celebrating heavenly friends this summer with a new initiative called Summer with the Saints. This free journey with the saints offers two tracks, one geared toward families with young children and one geared toward adults. Both tracks provide weekly opportunities to celebrate saints' feast days with movies and shows on Formed, and the family track includes related activities that kids of all ages will enjoy. The journey begins June 1, and continues through the end of August!

August 12, 2025 - Day of Recollection | "Divine Providence: God Always Makes A Way"

The world is full of victims and survivors of trauma at the hands of others. But how does one move from victim, to survivor, to thrive? Henri Nouwen, a Dutch priest wrote, "Nobody escapes being wounded ... When our wounds cease to be a source of shame and become a source of healing, we have become wounded healers." Join us and discover how God's grace changes everything.

Begins at 10am and concludes at 3pm. This day-long retreat consists of 2 conference talks, Mass, Lunch and time for Adoration and Confession.

Free will donation event.

To register email events@abbeyofthehills.org or visit www.abbeyofthehills.org.
